

Our Mission

People with disabilities live self-directed lives in the community at a justifiable cost .

People are valued members of Society.

People direct their own lives and make informed choices.

Personal support networks know that individuals are properly supported now and in the future.

The rights of people with disabilities are protected.

Semiahmoo House Society Service Principles

We will start by listening to who you are.

We only exist to satisfy other people's needs.

We will seek to improve your community.
